In our "dot com" world today, everyone is online, which makes it hard to establish yourself as unique anymore. Everyone from businesses to families have a ".com" website and chances are, the domain name you really want is already taken. This means you need to get VERY creative and settle for a less-than-perfect name for you. And if you do find a name that suits you, where do you go from there?

More Than Just a Pretty Name...

GDI offers the complete package to help you build your very own online identity very quickly. Imagine having your own name for your domain... and all the tools to help you get online quick! Here's just a peek:

- Truly Personal Email: With up to 10 addresses, you can view your our email in your existing email program or use our powerful web-based email tool.
- SiteBuilder: If you can type, you can build your own website. Loads of templates to choose from help you get started fast.
- Advanced Web Tools: Domain hosting, forwarding and privacy, plus premium domains, and more. We've got it all for both advanced and beginning web users!

About GDI:

Helping people get online is what Global Domains International has been doing for over 10 years. Here's a quick timeline to our success:

1999: Founders Michael Starr and Alan Ezeir met with the King & Prime Minister of Western Samoa to secure rights to be the exclusive worldwide registry for all .WS domains.

2000: Company launched and sales of .WS "WebSite" domains soar as the market readily adopts this new, convenient, globally-appropriate domain option.

2002: Ranked as #37 on the prestigious Inc. Magazine 500 Fastest Growing companies list.

2004: Complete domain package created and new marketing models are implemented to take GDI domains to families, communities, and social groups.

2007: Accepted as a member of the Direct Selling Association, the "gold standard" of ethics and excellence in business.

2009: New cutting-edge email interface and expanded SiteBuilder options make GDI the hands-down choice for simplicity and power.
